

EVERYTHING OLD IS NEW AGAIN!

A 1950 Westcraft Coronado Pullman, fully restored. Owners: Chuck & Toni Miltenberger

The 2nd Annual "Trail Along to Pismo" Vintage Trailer Rally is held at Pismo Coast Village May 15-17, 2009. This group promotes the three R's of vintage trailing: relaxation, recreation, and most importantly – restoration and preservation of these gems. This get together offers folks with a common interest – caretaking these vintage trailers – a wonderful place to show and tell. Vintage trailers from the 1930s-1970s are on display via a walk-around and trailer visitation (open house) from 10am-2pm on Sat, May 16.

The group reserves 200 sites at the RV park they consider a "coastal treasure," namely Pismo Coast Village.

Activities for the group include a breakfast, open house, "trailer trash finger food" happy hour, an evening movie presentation, possible bowling night and much more. Sharing and trading ideas is the order of the day, and tall tales get thrown in too! More than 160 vintage trailers were displayed last year, and over 200 are planned for this year. Some trailerites (as trailer folk were called in the 1930s and 1940s) also display vintage towing vehicles.

So, even though Pismo Coast Village is sold out for this event, please come visit these unique and nostalgic RVs. Visit the group's website: www.vintage-trailercamp.com ♦
